

DVV International in Kyrgyzstan

2002-

Supported by the

DVV International has been supporting Adult Learning and Education (ALE) in Kyrgyzstan since the year 2002 with the country office established in Bishkek in 2012. Since 2018 the country office has also functioned as DVV International Regional office for Central Asia.

DVV International activities are focused on the three main areas:

- On macro level: Promotion of ALE in Kyrgyzstan through improvement of the framework conditions for ALE and development of lifelong culture among population and decision makers. The main focus is promoting of wider inclusion of ALE into policy documents both on national and local levels through ALE situation analysis, development of ALE stakeholders networks and partnerships, enhancement of professional discourse on ALE development in the country. ALE and it's transformational power both for individuals wellbeing and the common good are promoted through information campaigns in social media, publications and awareness rising events on ALE benefits.
- On meso level: Capacity building and network development of formal and non-formal ALE providers is mainly focused on training and retraining of managerial, administrative and pedagogical staff, methodological support and consultancy, provision with information materials and curricula, infrastructure strengthening and exchange of experience with Central Asian and European ALE related structure.
- On micro level: Diversification and expansion of ALE offers for wide strata of adults and youth with focus on disadvantaged groups of population within civic education, vocational training, personal development, and empowerment through variety of ALE formats and methods.

All the projects are implemented through formal and non-formal partners and networks with financial support of the German Ministry of Economic Cooperation and Development (BMZ), European Union, German Federal Foreign office, and other donors.
